

Zofia i Józef Jarząbek and their 11 children:

Lucyna, Zofia, Andrzej, Ewelina, Katarzyna, Magdalena, Marcin, Justyna, Iwona, Małgorzata & Barbara.

The Jarząbek's Family is a beautiful, multi-generational, Polish family. They come from Podhale - Polish land of mountains. They form a band in which plays a greater part of the family. Parents met in the regional band as they were students. Father Joseph is self-taught, playing violin. Mother, Sophie sings and dances. They have eleven children, nine of them their time devoted to musical education. They sing, dance and play a variety of instruments. Their repertoire includes traditional Polish songs, songs of highland, folk and classic.

The Jarząbek's Family actively works in favor of large families. They are ambassadors of large families in local area, but also in all places where they occur. In recognition of their merits they were honor by the President's Gold Cross of Merit for large families.

They are nominated for the Award by ZDR3+, because they stand out with an extraordinary energy, they emanate the joy of life and they have unusual talent. There are also a beautiful example of the harmonious life of a large, multi-generational family. The children of the family are proud of their history and their siblings. Jarząbkowie shows the strength of large families and their extraordinary potential.